Obituary, Tell City News, 27-Mar-1936: County Man Dies at Home of Daughter; Daniel W. Schrader Returned to this County for Interment. Daniel W. Schrader was born in Perry county on March 4, 1868 and passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Annie Jeffries on Wednesday morning, March 18 at 9:30 o'clock. The deceased had not been in the best of health for several years, being a sufferer of diabetes. He was able to control this disease but when his wife passed away on March 20, 1935, less than a year ago, his spirits fell and he never quite recovered from that shock. This nervous reaction caused a heart affirment which he was unable to master. Mr. Schrader was the son of August, and Margaret Schrder. He attained the age of 58 years and 14 days at the time of his death. He received his education of the township schools and developed through the experience of his life. He always commanded the highest respect and his life was an example for honesty and truth - forever. While he always took interest in neighborhood affiars he never craved the limelight. He did what he thought was right and proper, and allowed the historian to give due ? if he so desired. The deceased was married to Mrs. Margaret Hermina Keilman on January 18, 1893. To this union were born nine children. Two passed away in infancy. Those surviving to mourntheir father's departure are Jesse and Mrs. Bessie Farris of Oriole; Arthur of Fredonia; Misses Roma and Elsie and Mrs. Annie Jeffries of Louisville and Cleo of Cleveland. These children have been left a splendid heritage, the remembrance of a home where love abounded. The earthly remains were laid to rest beside the remains of his wife atthe German Ridge Cemetery on March 20, 1936. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Warner of the M. E. Church. The children have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mary Breeze Hagy, 93, was born in Villa Grove, IL, in 1918 to William and Perna Keilman Breeze. She was raised in Decatur, IL, with older brother Lewis Breeze and younger sister Virginia Breeze Hartman. In 1941 she married Raymond "Dutch" Cripe. She followed her husband across the country to Colorado, California, South Carolina, and New York City before his deployment overseas. In New York City she worked at Bonwit Tellers where she sewed on dresses for Kate Smith. Once he was deployed she returned to Decatur, IL, where she worked at Houdaille-Hershey at which part of the atomic bomb was constructed. Her husband was killed at the Battle of the Bulge in World War II in January of 1945.

After the war, Mary went to Business College, traveled across the U.S., and took a job as a secretary for the Family Service Association in Decatur, IL. She married Lloyd Rollen Hagy in 1952, and moved to Indianapolis where in 1953 she gave birth to one son, David Hagy, currently the music director of the Salisbury Symphony. She took a position at the Indianapolis Family Service Association in 1955, becoming the secretary to the Executive Director, retiring in 1983. Lloyd Hagy preceded her in death in 1989. Following her husband's death, Mary traveled extensively across the country, going to both Hawaii and Alaska, and particularly enjoyed national parks with mountains.

Throughout her life she collected miniature elephants and enjoyed sewing. Her sense of humor was keen even through her last days. In 2007, she moved from Indianapolis to Trinity Oaks in Salisbury, NC, to be closer to her son. There she made new friends, attended several of her son's concerts, and became a lifetime member of both the Salisbury Symphony and Rowan-Salisbury Symphony Guild. On arrival in Salisbury she lived in independent living, moved to assisted living, and after two small strokes she moved into the Lutheran Home on the Trinity Oaks Campus.

Mary is survived by her son, David Hagy; niece, Vicki Hartman Moeckel, of Garden Grove, CA, and two nephews, Thomas Hartman and Robert Breeze, both of Decatur, IL as well as several cousins.

If you spent any time at all with Jay, you would know how special his two daughters were to him and how much he loved them. His special little girl, Anika, was his fishing buddy and she loved coming to GeePa’s house. He celebrated his 60th birthday on Aug. 18, along with his grandson, Austin, who had his 1st birthday the same day.

He is also survived by a sister-in-law, Carol Stephens, of Stone Mountain, Ga.; special family, Barbara Gyauch and husband Charles, of Winchester, Va.; “brother,” Jon Witt and wife Rita, of Ellerslie and “brother” Pastor Anteneh and wife Sophie, of Arlington, VA; and two godchildren, Yonni and Yohanna.

For 39 years, Mr. Kennell had worked at Potomac Metal & Supply. He served in the capacities of Vice President and General Manager.

Jay was a member of Christ Lutheran Church, where he had served on the church council. He had also been the Property Committee chairman for nine years.

Jay loved fishing and NASCAR, always watching for the “88” car to get the checkered flag!

The family will receive friends at the Hafer Funeral Service, P.A.-Chapel of the Hills, 1302 National Highway, LaVale, on Friday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

The funeral service will be conducted in the Christ Lutheran Church, 1222 Vocke Road, LaVale, on Saturday at 11 a.m. with the Rev. Charles Erzkus officiating, assisted by Pastor Anteneh Gebre-Selassie and Vicar Jenny Bramble.
