Joseph Korns Deed

Robin Yeamans (YRobin777@aol.com), an attorney living in California, provided the attached 1854 deed (see page 2) to Korns.org on April 16, 2007. It pertains to property in Dixon, Illinois that was purchased by "Joseph Korns, of Holmes County Ohio". On that date Robin also provided the following background information:

- "I'm quite sure I'm descended from the Kornses who were in Holmes County, Ohio. Elizabeth Hoyman Korns was the wife of William and the mother of Joseph Korns who was the father of Emanuel B Korns who was the father of Mildred Korns Yeamans who is my grandmother."
- "I talked to my Uncle Robert Yeamans today (son of Mildred Korns Yeamans, now in his late 90's), and he remembered that eventually Emanuel B. Korns and Josie Winters came to California, where they built Korns Court, a motel, at 1738 E. 4th St. in Long Beach CA. This was the first time I'd heard that EB came to California; I thought he died in So. Dakota. However, the motel did not do well financially, and I believe they lost it."

In regards to the attached deed, on April 17, 2007 Robin wrote that it is "what put me onto the trail of the Holmes County relatives.".

A close look at the deed suggests that the faded name may actually be written "Koons" instead of "Korns". It is very common for names to be misspelled on old documents; in many cases a name will be found to be spelled a number of different ways on the same document. On this document, however the name is written, it should unquestionably should be interpreted as "Korns" because the deed was passed down to Robin in family papers. Robin wrote "I don't remember either parent talking to me about the deed to me at all----or the affidavit either. I ended up with a number of family papers that weren't commented on or explained. I just kept all the old, official looking papers I could because I was interested in family history."
