RECORD OF JOHANNES (JOHN) WITT, SR IN AMERICA

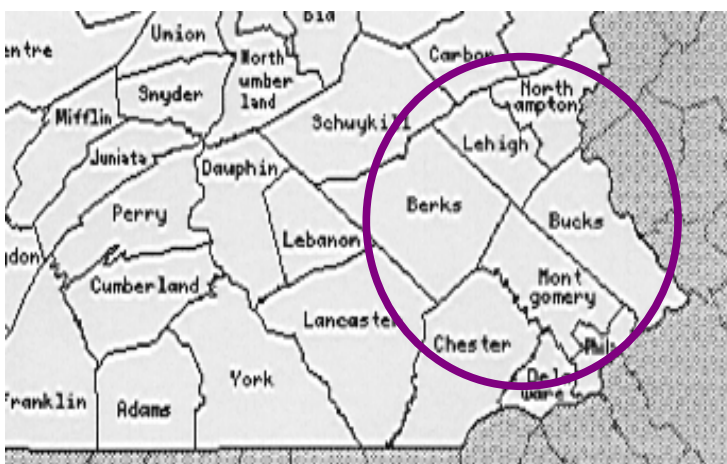

The birth of Johannes Witt was ~1725, possibly Saxony, near the home of his wife. He came to America before 1750, since the earliest record of Johannes (John) Witt is the record of his marriage on 23 Apr 1750 to Margretha Hartlein (called Maria Margaretha in son Henry's baptism in 1758, and called Margaret in husband John's will in 1798). She was the daughter of John Michael and Julia (Dressler) Herdlein/Hartlein. Their marriage was recorded in the Lutheran Church of New Hanover, Montgomery Co., PA. John, Sr. is listed as a Juror living in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., PA on 3 Oct 1765 (found in Immigration Records: German and Swiss Settlers in America, 1700s – 1800s). He took the Oath of Allegiance at Northampton, PA before Jacob Horner, on 21 Feb 1778, which demonstrates that he immigrated to PA. He was a member of the New Bethel Zion Church (Evangelical Lutheran), Grimville, Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., PA, where he took communion on 6 Nov 1791, was a deacon in 1796 and a builder of the schoolhouse. John, Sr. He is head of a family in the 1790 Census for Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., PA. He died 8 Feb 1797, Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., PA. Johannes and his wife Margaret were buried at Mt. Zion Lutheran Church Cemetery, Krumsville, PA.

John Witt is listed in PA Archive Series 3, Volume 18-Berks Co., Maxatawny Twp., as follows:

- 1779 John Witt, 100 acres 2 horses 3 cows (p. 251)
- 1780 Jno Witt, 125 acres 2 horses 3 cows (p. 383)
- 1781 Jno Witt, 125 acres 3 horses 4 cows (p. 511)
- 1784 John Witt 100 acres 3 horses 3 cows 3 sheep (p. 638)
- 1785 John Witt (p. 770 or 767).

John's wife, Anna Margaretha Herdlein, was born in 1729, in Bavaria, Germany, the daughter of John Jacob and Julia (Dressler) Hartlein. She died about 1791 in Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., PA, and is buried with her husband at Mt. Zion Lutheran Church in Krumsville, Berks Co., PA.

Eastern Counties of Pennsylvania in Year 2000

Johannes, Margaret and children located in three primary counties of PA, i.e., Montgomery, Berks, and Northampton - now Lehigh Cos. Dominant areas within these counties are: New Hanover Twp., Montgomery Co.; Greenwich Twp. and Maxatawny Twp in Berks Co.; and the city of Krumsville, Berks Co. Carl and Margaretha Uhl also attended New Bethel Zion Church in Grimville, Berks Co. during the early 1790s, when the Witt's were also in attendance at this church.

Note: Maxatawny Twp. was formed in 1742, while part of Philadelphia, PA; Berks Co. was formed in 1752; Greenwich Twp. was formed from Albany Twp. in 1755, and Albany Twp. was formed in 1752. Montgomery Co. was formed from Philadelphia Co. in 1784.

Picture of a drawing of the New Bethel Zion Church, located in Greenwich Twp., city of Grimville, in Berks County. This first church was built about 1762 and has been replaced with modern churches over time. Many children of John Witt and his grandchildren were baptized here.

CURRENT MAP OF PA THAT SHOWS LOCATION OF CITIES SETTLED BY WITT'S

Information found on the activities of Johannes (John) and his wife and children indicate that the parents, and many children, settled in Berks County from about 1780+ and died there in 1790+ to 1820+. However, some children, including our direct line ancestor, George Witt, moved west to Somerset County, near the Wellersburg area, and attend the Wellersburg Reformed Lutheran church from 1790+ to 1840+. Johannes' son, Jacob, served in the Revolutionary War as early as 1776, and was living in Berks Co., PA at that time. Johannes' son, George, was buried in Wellersburg in 1793, so the family arrived in Berks Co., PA in the mid-1750s, based upon Jacob's birth date, and some children moved to Somerset Co. in the 1790's.

2ND GENERATION WITT FAMILY TREE JACOB WITT – NOT RELATED TO HERDLEIN FAMILY

Jacob Witt, 2nd son of Johannes and Margaret Witt, was born in Albany Twp., Berks Co., and enlisted in the Revolutionary War in 1776. He left Berks Co. just after the Revolutionary War, becoming the first of the Witt line to arrive in Somerset County, where he married twice and fathered four children.

The Witt family had an historic influence in the new County, especially in the Wellersburg area, where Jacob Sr. helped found a Reformed and Lutheran Church, which was attended by many members of the Witt, Uhl, Wilhelm, and Close families, and by other families related to the Carter line.

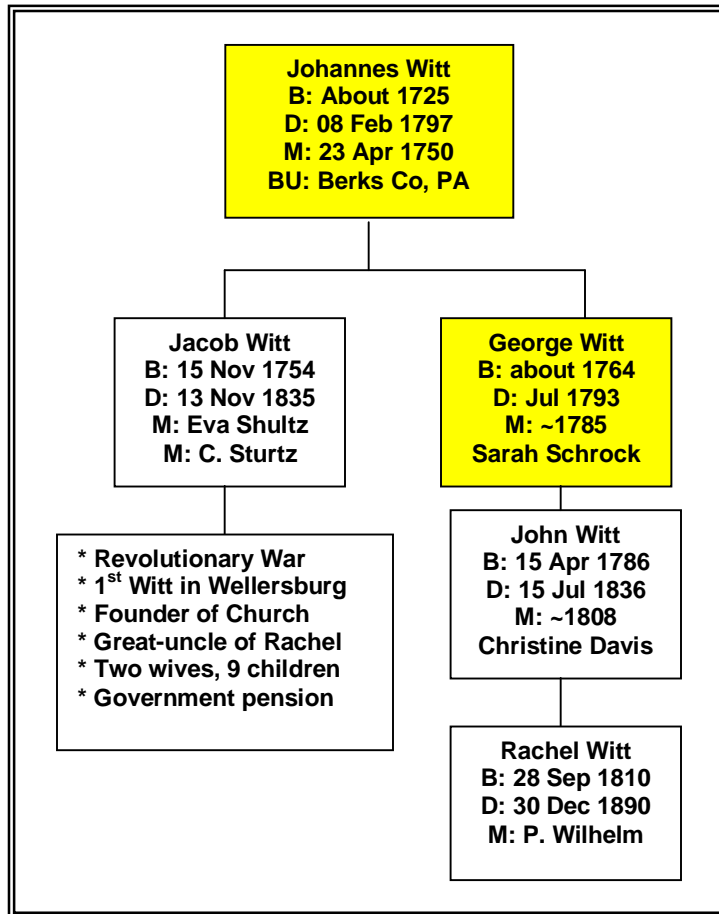

In the church cemetery is a monument that contains the history of Jacob Witt and graves of his family (Note: Plaque confuses Jacob Sr, with Jacob Jr).

“Jacob Witt – founder of the Wellersburg PA family of that name, was born in Albany Township, Berks County, PA on November 15, 1754 and he died November 13, 1835 in the Southampton Township, Somerset County, PA. While living in Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., he enlisted and served between the summer of 1776 and close of Revolutionary War – at various times amounting to 8 months – Sargeant under Captains Crosseur, Maser, Sutter, Spangler, Emert, Deal and Schapell with PA troops. He was in Battle of Mammouth and was allowed a war pension in 19 Oct 1852, while living in Southampton Twp.

2nd GENERATION WITT FAMILY TREE
GEORGE WITT – GRANDFATHER OF RACHEL WITT (WILHELM)

George Witt, 8th child of Johannes and Margaret Witt, born in Berks Co., also went west and settled in Somerset County. He is the direct line ancestor of the Carter family tree.

The move of George Witt to Somerset County occurred late in his life, since he died in 1793, and his move likely was late in the 1780s. His son, John Witt, is father of Rachel Witt, our ancestor who married into the Wilhelm line in Wellersburg, PA.

4TH GENERATION WITT FAMILY TREE – MERGES INTO WILHELM FAMILY
RACHEL WITT, WHO MARRIES PHILIP WILHELM

Philip Wilhelm was born on 2 Aug 1802 in Pennsylvania (in Somerset Co.) and was a farmer who lived on the John Witt (his father-in-law) farm, after marrying Rachel Witt in 1829 in Allegany Co., MD. At this point, the records of the Wellersburg Reformed Church, reinforced by the 1850-1860-1870 census records, tell much of how Philip's family grows and where they are living during the period 1802 – 1876. Rachel's great uncle, Jacob Witt, is credited with founding the church, but the Wilhelm families and Uhl families were also founding members. Records of the church report christenings of member children during the time period 1820-1840s.

Philip and Rachel bear 11 children in the PA/MD area before leaving in 1851, and going with their son, Levi, to Lee Co., IL. Here Philip and Rachel become part of the original growth of the city of Dixon, continue farming, and finally succumb in 1876 for Philip and in 1890 for Rachel. They also had land in Grundy Co., IA. Philip and Rachel are buried in Burkett's cemetery in Dixon, IL.

Philip Wilhelm was born 2 August 1802, the son of Peter Wilhelm and Salome Knauss. He was born and lived on the farm of his father in Somerset County. On 28 September 1810, he married Rachel Witt, the daughter of John Witt and Rebecca Korn's Witt. Records of the Somerset Co. Historical Society indicate that the marriage occurred in MD:

Marriage

Groom: Philip Wilhelm

Bride: Rachel Witt
 MD: about 1829

Place: Allegheny, MD

The record indicates that the marriage of Philip and Rachel occurred in Maryland, but the 1850 census shows that the first children were born in PA. Their christening in the Wellersburg church followed each birth of Philip and Rachel's children. Philip Wilhelm's married and family life begins in 1830, with the recorded birth of his first child, Levi, as shown on the Wellersburg church records. The church birth records begin in 1823, but the 1830 christening of Levi, child of Philip and Rachel Wilhelm, is the first listing for Philip and Rachel. This indicates that they would have been married about 1829, and may have both been born in PA. The church records list births for this couple up to the year 1844, when the records end. After their marriage, Philip and Rachel lived and farmed on the farm of John Witt, and they attended church at the Reformed and Lutheran Church, which the Witt family founded.
