Whereas the under signed citizens of Southampton Township Somerset County Pennsylvania have at sundry times heretofore made several purchases of several tracts and parts of tracts situate in the said Township being parts of two large tracts or parcels of land heretofore known and called the Great Survey and Smiths land which lands were surveyed and returned upon sixteen locations and orders of surveys which by sundry means conveyances have been vested in Samuel Riddle plenty hereto and in the trustees of the Juniata coal company and whereby the original lines as run on the ground and returned to the Office have not been regarded in laying off the several farms sold by the said Samuel Riddle and the said Trustees and each of the said tracts have been cut up and divided and some of the tracts sold include parts of two or more of the original Surveys and to procure separate returns and Patents to each purchaser according to the ends of this purchase would be attended and great unnecessary expence to prevent and to enable the said Purchasers to procure their Patents with the least possible trouble and expence it is hereby agreed by the several parties signing this agreement that the said Samuel Riddle and the said Trustees shall make out separate deeds for one of each of the said tracts of land to some one of the under signed parties and that each person to whom such deed or deeds shall be made shall thereupon execute letters of Attorney to the Land Agent or some other fit person or Persons to procure a patent for such tract as shall be conveyed to him and to execute a mortgage to the State for the purchase money and interest due on such tract of land to the Commonwealth payable in ten yearly equal installments according to law and it is fully agreed between the parties that each person who shall receive such deed or deeds and patents shall hold the land mentioned in such deed to the use of the said several purchasers and the said Samuel Riddle and the said Trustees and each of them according to the terms of the several agreements between the said parties or either of them and that each party shall pay their respective part or parts of the fees and purchase money due upon the said several tracts of land according to the number of acres each of them holds according to the several contracts and agreements now subsisting between them and each person to whom such patent shall be made shall hold to his own use and to the use of his heirs and assigns so much of the land therein mentioned as they are respectively entitled to under their respective purchases and that each of them and their respective heirs shall when called upon sign seal and deliver deeds to the several persons entitled to the Residue of such tracts according to such agreements and according to the lines and boundaries heretofore run and established upon the ground for ascertaining the several lots sold by the said Samuel Riddle and the said Trustees or either of them It being the true intent and meaning of the parties that all the said contracts shall be fully and fairly carried into effect and the sole intent and meaning of this agreement and the deeds and Patents to be made or procured in pursuance of this agreement is to procure Patents with the least possible expense to the several Parties concerned and that each party shall fairly and honestly pay his fee and fair part of the expense of Patenting the said land the same in ten yearly installments according to the act of Assembly In Witness whereof the said parties have hereunto interchangeably set their hands and seals this second day of September A.D. 1814
