

Teenie Dog Lyrics

© Lannie Dietle 2026

Teenie was a little squirrel dog, just as fine as a dog could be.
She'd bark, and bark some more, and chase'm round the tree.

Them squirrels climbed up 'n hid when Pappy came along.
It's like they'd see his shotgun, and know that somethin's wrong.

Teenie dog, little Teenie dog, chase'm round the tree.
Make'm hide from you, and send'm round to me.

Pappy hunted on the shady side of his ridge top farm.
He'd walk along real slow, tryin' not to cause alarm.

Them squirrels they'd see Pappy, and start a kukkin' at him loud.
Have at'm little Teenie dog, and bring'm back around.

Pappy had a twelve-gauge, and them squirrels he liked to eat.
When that old shotgun spoke, little Teenie got a treat.

Teenie dog, little Teenie dog, chase'm round the tree.
Make'm hide from you, and send'm round to me.

I helped Pappy skin them squirrels, and what a tuggin' match we had.
I was just a youngster, but I didn't do all that bad.

Grammy's wait'n in the kitchen with her Griswold fryin' pan.
She'll fry them squirrels up when she gets'm in her hands.

Teenie dog's in the kitchen, a baskin' in the heat.
Pap and me are washin' up for the supper we're gonna eat.

They're a sizzlin' in the pan, soakin' up the bacon grease,
As Grammy sets a plate down with a little doggy treat.

Teenie dog, little Teenie dog, chase'm round the tree.
Make'm hide from you, and send'm round to me.
Oh, make'm hide from you, and send'm round to me.
