JACOB PETER MILLER AND CATHARINE BARE MILLER

Jacob Peter Miller was born October 24, 1845, in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. He received a common school education, was a farmer, and during his lifetime purchased various farms which amounted to approximately 1,000 acres. He farmed at home for his father until grown. He then married Catharine Bare who was born November 1840, then purchased the William Bare farm from his father-in-law in 1878. He also started in the timber business. He greatly prospered in both farming and the timber business.

In community life he was a school director. His family belonged to the Church of the Brethren. He later joined the Lutheran Church of which he was deacon and elder.

He was a very robust man, perhaps 6 feet 4 inches tall, and worked very hard. He had as many as 15 or 20 men working for him at one time, most of them stayed overnight. That made lots of work for Mrs. Miller and her help. Her daughter's helped with the work and she also had other help. In their younger days they raised flax, which she would weave into cloth and make their clothes from it. She also spun yarn from wool and knit the mittens and stockings for her family to wear.

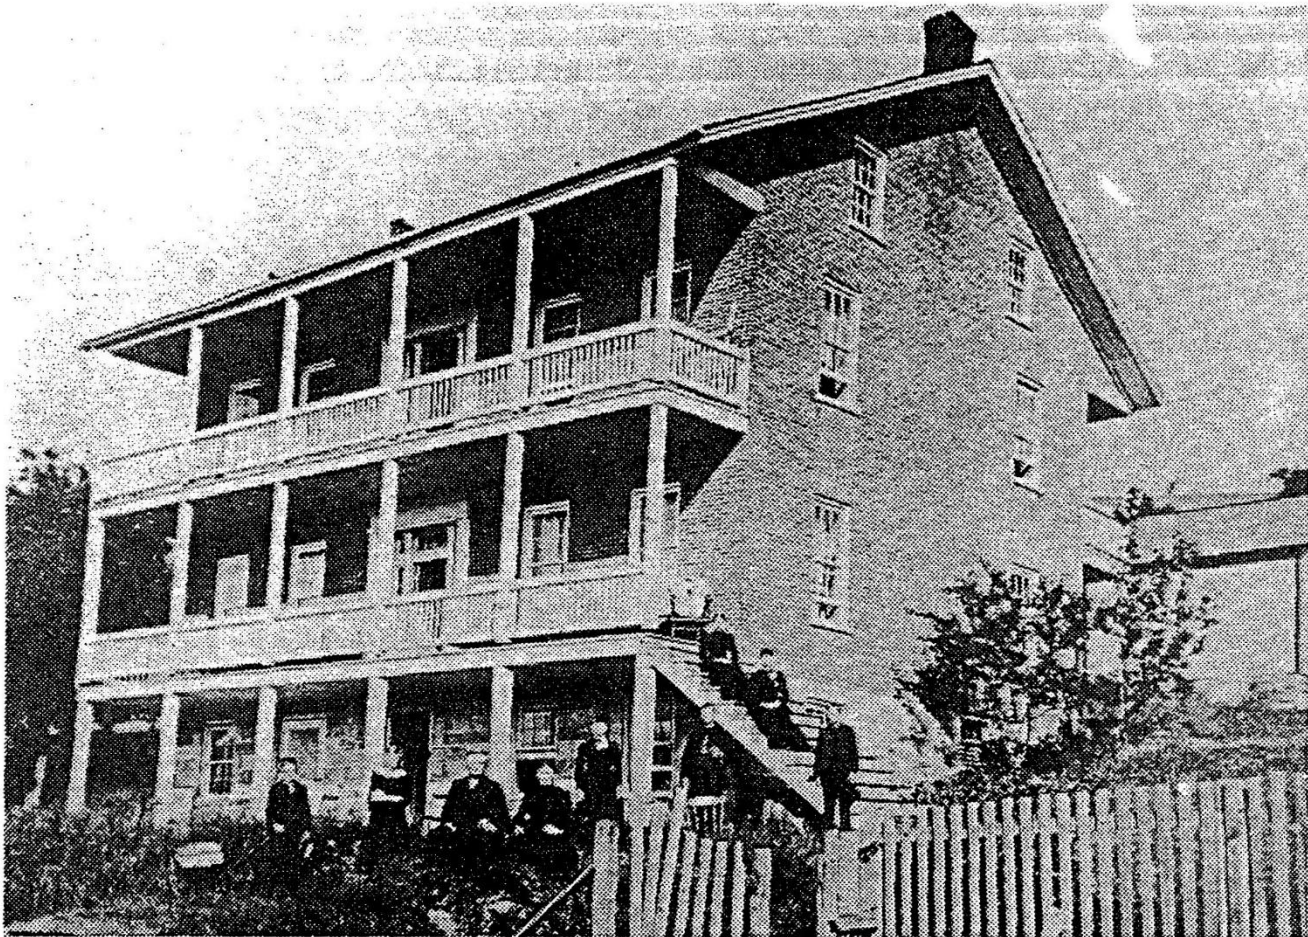

Jacob was fatally injured while operating a sawmill, by a piece of timber striking him in the abdomen, and died August 11, 1889.

Jacob Peter Miller, born in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania October 24, 1845; died August 11, 1898.

Catharine (Bare) Miller. born Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania November 20, 1840; died May 13, 1918.

They were married in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania on December 25, 1870.

Sarah Miller, the oldest daughter of Jacob Peter and Catharine (Bare) Miller was born September 27, 1871. On March 28, 1901, she married Jacob Paul, born June 24, 1870. They lived on what was known as the George Warner farm one-half mile northwest of the Greenville Lutheran Church. She was a woman of medium stature; she had a temperamental disposition, but firm. When she said something, she didn't repeat it.

When she was about 50 years old, she had a severe case of rheumatism which left her stooped, and her hands were somewhat drawn crooked. After she recovered from her illness, she was very hardy. She was seldom sick, probably due to the medication she received during her illness. She was in fairly good health up until she died. She was never in bed due to sickness.

On the day of her death she was staying at her oldest daughter's home, Ida P. Swartzwelder. She ate her last meal at the table and went upstairs to her room to lie down. Known that her mother wasn't feeling well, Ida looked in on her sometime later and found that she had passed away, June 21, 1957. Her husband preceded her in death on January 21, 1943.

BELINDA BAER, b. 5-28-1875; d. 1-31-1961

Harvey Miller, oldest son of Jacob P. and Catharine (Bare) Miller, was born on the Keefer farm in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania, on September 21, 1873. His schooling was acquired in the grade school on his father's farm. After he finished school, he worked on the farms and sawmills which his father owned. He worked there until his father's death.

On April 6, 1890, he was confirmed and became a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Greenville Township by the Reverend O. F. Harshman. During his years he served almost continuously as an Elder or Deacon of the church.

On January 6, 1898, he married Belinda Baer, daughter of Elisha and Polly (Beal) Baer. She was born May 28, 1875. They were married at the bride's home by their pastor, Reverend E. S. Johnston. In the fall of 1899, they bought the Peter D. Miller farm at Pocahtontas, Pennsylvania. They moved on this farm, and to this union were born thirteen children, two of whom died in infancy. They were all born in Greenville Township. They were very devoted to their children and family. During school terms, when the weather was bad, he would haul the children to school and in the evening he would meet them and take them home. During the days of horses, no weather was ever too bad. He would go with his family on the sled through the fields and woods, shovel snow if need be, to get to church.

They were hard-working people. She would spin the wool and knit the stockings and mittens for the children and her husband. She also made most of the clothes for them. During his earlier married life, he ran an applebutter factory and cider mill that was on his farm. Every fall, for three or four months when apples were plentiful, he would work from around 5:30 or 6:00 a.m. till midnight, five and six days a week. His brother Wilson, and brother-in-law A. E. Baer, were partners in operating the factory. His brother-in-law left the factory when his sons became old enough to help with the work. His wife would go help tie up the crocks of applebutter two or three nights a week and on Saturdays.

When the new Evangelical Lutheran Church was built at Greenville in 1910, he helped with the work. He used his team for hauling whenever it was possible. He was one of the organizers of the Union Cemetery at Greenville and helped start the funds for perpetual care of the cemetery.

He served many terms as township road supervisor as well as township auditor. In 1946, he retired from farming. They sold their farm to their youngest son and his wife, Elbert and Hilda.

They lived together to celebrate their 59th wedding anniversary. He died June 8, 1957, at the age of 83 years, 8 months, 18 days. She died January 31, 1961, at the age of 85 years, 8 months, 3 days.

LEVI SHOCKEY, b. 12-4-1872; d. 12-12-1912

Ellen Miller was born on the Keefer farm on February 22, 1896, in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. Being in a family of six children, she attended the Miller School located on the Earle W. Miller farm, formerly the W. Wilson Miller farm.

On April 29, 1897 she married Levi Shockey, born December 4, 1872, by the Reverend E. S. Johnson in Salisbury, Pennsylvania. They started housekeeping in Greenville Township, and later moved to Meyersdale and lived on the Wilmoth property for six years. In 1906, they moved to Milford Township, where they purchased the Daniel Stahl farm.

On December 12, 1912, our father became sick and passed away, leaving mother with a farm, 250 acres of land, and eleven children, of which she was the sole support. I, William Shockey, being the oldest son, write this biography in appreciation of our mother, who put in many a hard day supporting the family with this great cause our family has survived.

On February 15, 1947, with her work ended, God saw fit to take her home with him. Some day we are hoping to see her again. May God bless us all.

WILLIAM WILSON MILLER, b. 10-28-1877; d. 4-25-1973
m. 10-25-1900

Alice Lowry, b. 12-18-1877; d. 8-6-1975

William Wilson Miller was born in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania and married Alice Lowry in Meyersdale, Pennsylvania at the home of Reverend B. B. Collins on October 25, 1900. Alice was born in Greenville Township on December 18, 1877.

William Wilson Miller, second son of Jacob P. and Catharine (Bare) Miller, was born at the Elbert E. Miller farm in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. When a year old, his parents moved to the William Bare farm. He attended the Miller common school through the sixth grade. After he finished school he stayed at home and worked on his father's farms and sawmills until his father's death, after which he bought the home farm in 1898.

In 1891 he was confirmed and became a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church in Greenville Township by Pastor Johnston. During his years, he served almost continuously as an Elder or Deacon, Superintendent of the Sunday School or Teacher. He helped build the new church building for the Greenville congregation in 1910.

During the days of horses, no weather was too bad. He would go with his family on the sled through the fields and woods, and shovel snow, if need be, to get to church.

In 1911 he and his family moved to Oklahoma, where he tried farming for about six months, after which they returned to the home farm where they lived until their deaths.

He had been a very active and influential citizen in the community as a road supervisor and member of the school board. He and Alice voted regularly, being life-long Republicans.

They lived, retired, on their farm which is now owned by their son and his wife, Earle and Ethel Miller. They were the parents of five children.

Wilson and Alice lived together to celebrate their 72nd wedding anniversary. He died in the Berlin Home for the Aged, Berlin, Pennsylvania, at the age of 95 years, 6 months, 28 days. Alice died at the home of a grandson, Robert Miller, in Willowick, Ohio, at the age of 97 years, 8 months, 19 days.

FRANKLIN LLOYD HOCHSTETLER (or) HOSTETLER, b. 9-18-1884; d. 3-20-1920

Minerva Miller was the youngest daughter of Jacob and Catharine (Bare) Miller was born on the W. W. Miller farm in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. She received a common school education. She helped with the house work at home, and when she grew older she worked for different families in the township. She was confirmed into the Lutheran Church in Greenville Township. Like her family, she was a very religious woman.

While working in the Allen Yutzky home in Pocahontas, she met the man she later married, Franklin Lloyd Hochstetler (or Hostetler). They were married in Meyersdale by Reverend Bishop Conrad G. Lint.

There were six children born to them. They lived on a farm in Greenville Township where he did farming and blacksmithing. In 1917 they moved to Colo, Iowa. They lived there a short time and did farming. He became sickly and they moved to Ames, Iowa.

Minerva had the young children to care for and raise. She was a very good and kind mother, and did any work she could get that she could do in the home to help, including washing for people. After her children were grown, she got a job at Iowa State College, Ames Iowa as a cook. She enjoyed her work, and in later years looked forward to retirement.

he made several trips back to visit her brothers and sisters in Pennsylvania after her retirement. She died on February 12, 1959 and was buried in Iowa.

Milton Peter Miller, youngest son of Jacob P. and Catharine (Bare) Miller, was born at the family home in Greenville Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. This home is now occupied by Earle W. Miller. Milton attended the Miller School to the sixth grade. He then worked on the arm until he was 16. After that he worked for the telephone company trimming trees and doing other lineman work.

He was always prepared to play jokes and tricks on his brothers, sisters, the local hermit, and his father's farm hands. He usually travelled with other young men who enjoyed this type of pass time. At 21, he was given the opportunity to go to college. He received an athletic scholarship for football and track. This included two years of prep school and four years of college at Gettysburg. He majored in Chemistry. There he was nicknamed "Milky" because milk was the strongest beverage he would touch. He played right tackle on the football team, threw the hammer, javelin, discus and shot-put in track. In 1911, he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree.

He returned to Greenville and there purchased one of the first cars, a 1911 Ford Roadster. That Fall, he taught in the Garrett High School. For sometime he had courted a little Scotch school teacher from the Meyersdale Grade School. She was a graduate of the Indiana State Normal School. On May 1, 1912 they were married by the Reverend Young in the Lutheran parsonage. They settled in Meyersdale, where Milton then worked for the S.A. Kennell Lumber Company.

Due to the poor health of Milton and his wife, they decided to move to South Langhorne, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Here he bought ten acres, built a large comfortable home, and worked in factories and farmed. He established a lumber business and building business. At the beginning of World War I, due to the lack of lumber, he had to close his business. He then worked in various building trades such as ship building and home building. In 1935, he built an ice manufacturing plant which proved to be successful. It was during this time that his wife Agnes' health continued to fail. After a long illness, she passed away on January 13, 1928. Reverend Dallas Baer officiated at the funeral services and she was laid to rest in the Hulmeville Cemetery.

Milton continued in the business until the Fall of 1933. He then worked in various factories in Philadelphia, and finally moved there in 1935. Gradually, he re-established a home there, and in 1943 married Rose I. Brown. He was a great sports enthusiast, especially baseball. He was a devoted Philadelphia Athletics fan. As he drew near his retirement, his main ambition was to go to Florida and make a home there. He never realized this life-long ambition, because with only four months to go until his retirement, he was killed in an accident on the evening of April 8, 1949 at Midvale Steel Company. He was buried beside his wife in the Hulmeville Cemetery in Langhorne, Pennsylvania.
