

Patented by Coke for the 10 March
1794

an half Degree East one Hundred & thirty eight perches from the Beginning Tree of lot 3354 and Running North twenty Degree East one Hundred perches South thirty three degrees East one Hundred perches South thirty two Degree West one Hundred and thirty four perches Then by a Straight Line to the Beginning containing fifty Acres

Subscribed to Michael Combs
5 March
1802

3356 Beginning at a Bounder Chestnut standing North fifty Degree East one Hundred and eighty four perches from the end of the first line of lot 3355 and Running North thirty Degree West one Hundred perches to the Pennsylvania line and thence Hundred and Eighty six perches East from a white Oak standing on said line marked CLXV Then South sixty Degree West eighty perches South thirty degrees East one Hundred perches Then by a Straight Line to the Beginning containing fifty Acres

3357 Beginning at the Beginning of lot 3356 and Running North thirty degrees East one Hundred perches to the Pennsylvania line thence East one Hundred and twenty five perches South thirty Degree West one Hundred and Twenty five perches Then by a Straight line to the Beginning containing fifty Acres

Patented to John Witt May
20th 1818

3358 Beginning at a Bounder white Oak standing West ^{one Hundred & thirty four} perches from a white Oak post on the Pennsylvania Line marked CLXV and Running South fifty perches East one Hundred & thirty five ft North fifty perches to the aforesaid Line Then by a Straight line to the Beginning containing fifty Acres
This a line that had been by order of the Court taken in 1815

3359 Beginning at the Original Beginning of a Tract of land called Lubber Land and Running with it reversed North fifty three degrees East eighteen perches East one Hundred and eight perches to the ^{end} of the second line of lot 3358 and with the third line thereof North fifty perches to the Pennsylvania Line West one Hundred and forty two perches to the end of the fourth line of a Tract of Land called white Oak Point and with it reversed South fifty one degree East fifty perches South forty one Degree West twenty perches Then by a straight line to the Beginning containing fifty Acres

Patented to
Charles Cole
19 Jan 1804

3360 Beginning at a Bounder Hickory tree standing on the Pennsylvania Line and North forty perches West fifty perches from the Beginning of a tract of land called white Oak Point and Running West one Hundred perches South eighty perches East one Hundred perches Then by a straight line to the Beginning containing fifty Acres